

Dempsey WINS IN FOUR ROUNDS

CARPENTIER KNOCKED OUT BY RIGHT HOOK

RINGSIDE, JERSEY CITY, July 2—Georges Carpentier finished flat on his face, his legs and arms outstretched, in the fourth round. Jack Dempsey, the world's heavy-weight champion, knocked him out a few seconds after the round opened, sending him heavily to the canvas with a short right hook to the chin.

The actual time of fighting in the fourth round was one minute and 16 seconds. Previous to the knockout, Carpentier was floored with a left to the body and a right to the chin.

Carpentier took a count of nine before springing to his feet, where the grim, determined Dempsey measured him with a punch to the chin, which ended the battle. Dempsey stood over the fallen French idol until the count was finished and then tenderly picked up the bleeding and dazed Frenchman and dragged him to his corner.

Dempsey gave Carpentier an unmerciful beating. He opened up a cut under the Frenchman's eye and battered him so viciously around the head with rights and lefts until Carpentier's face was swollen and bleeding.

Carpentier fought gamely back at the champion, but he was outclassed.

Once he was half knocked and half pushed through the ropes and most of the time was going away from the champion. Dempsey kept after him, driving him to the corner whenever he had an opportunity.

Carpentier was out only for a few seconds. Manager Descamps applied first aid as quickly as the Frenchman dropped into his chair.

Police immediately climbed into the ring and made a path for the champion and Carpentier to go to their dressing rooms. When Dempsey put home the winning punch, the swelling crowd that packed the arena was on its feet yelling.

The crowd, so apathetic during the preliminaries, went wild when the fighters entered the ring, during the four rounds and at the knockout. Above all sounds were the shrieks of the women as blow and blow followed and blood was drawn.

The sudden manner in which the main bout was staged with postponement of the last preliminary, caught the spectators by surprise. There were cheers when the American champion was introduced but the crowd cheered itself hoarse as Carpentier was hailed as the champion of the old world, idol of his country and a soldier of France.

As calm and unperturbed a fighter as ever entered the ring, the French birdman kept his eyes turned up, watching planes circling overhead with noisy staccato at the very moment the boxers appeared.

There was not the usual rush to the ring after the knock-out—the championship rush that carries all before it.

What rush did start soon was checked by a heavy detail of police around the ring. The Frenchman's supporters clung around his corner until he was revived and staggered from the ring—the "battle of the century" over.

The throng during the bout rose and sank back in their seats in a wave which rippled from ringside to ringside. The crowd cheered the champion and Carpentier as they entered the ring. The crowd cheered the champion and Carpentier as they entered the ring. The crowd cheered the champion and Carpentier as they entered the ring.

The Fight By Rounds

ROUND ONE
They were sent away at 3:18. Carpentier landed a light left and clinched. Carpentier landed a right. They fought at close range and in a clinch. Dempsey was short with a left to the head. Carpentier missed a right but connected with a left hook. Dempsey pushed him, Dempsey punished him, beating him unmercifully. Carpentier was groggy and bleeding at the nose. Dempsey missed a right swing but beat Carpentier. They clinched. Carpentier fell through the ropes trying to avoid a punch. He flew into Dempsey when he crawled back. He landed several blows on the champion's body at the bell. Dempsey had the better of the round.

ROUND TWO
Carpentier missed with a left and clinched. Carpentier backed away and Dempsey hooked him with a right to the jaw. Dempsey followed after him, beating him around the head with rights. Carpentier was short with a left hook. But he struck and staggered the champion with swift rights and lefts to the jaw. Dempsey staggered back some and split the Frenchman's left eye with a hook. The cut was under the eye. Carpentier missed a right swing. Dempsey missed. They exchanged body blows in the clinch at the bell ring.

ROUND THREE

ROUND FOUR
Dempsey rushed Carpentier to the ropes and a left to the body made him wince. Carpentier landed a right to the head and tried to hang on. Dempsey missed. Carpentier floored. One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, up.

Avalanche Of Words Rushed Over Wires

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 2.—More than 2,500,000 words descriptive of Jack Dempsey, training campaign, have been sent out of Atlantic City over the wires of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, officials of the two companies announced today.

For the first time since the world's heavy-weight champion established his training camp here, telegraph operators today sat idly beside their keys. The lull was occasioned by the departure of Dempsey and the army of correspondents who have chronicled the progress of his training.

More news matter and comment has gone out of here concerning the Dempsey training camp than anything ever before located in Atlantic City. It was estimated that in addition to the columns of newspaper reading matter filed with the telegraph companies, nearly three million more words were sent by mail.

Scalpers Cut Ticket Prices

JERSEY CITY, July 2.—Purchasers who bought seats from speculators at advances of four hundred to five hundred percent over market prices, groaned today when they learned that some of the "scalpers" had become panic stricken and cut prices to 20 and 30 percent below Rickard's prices. Even at these prices the speculators' tickets went slowly. This was believed to be due more to the scare over counterfeit tickets, however, than to a lessening demand for seats. Established brokers said tickets moved steadily, although it was said there were many choice seats still available at a late hour.

Harding Near Arena, Shows No Interest

RARITAN, N. J., July 2.—Despite unfavorable weather, President Harding made golf a feature of his second day's visit at the home of Senator Frelinghuysen. He arranged to try out the course at Bernardsville, 12 miles away, making the trip by automobile over slippery roads and with a light rain falling.

He expected to return to Raritan late this afternoon to sign the peace resolution finally passed yesterday by congress and despatched here by a special messenger. Prior to receipt of the resolution, he declined to make any public comment regarding it.

Treaty Will Run For Another Year

LONDON, July 2.—Great Britain has notified Japan that owing to the decision of Lord Birtwhistle, the lord high chancellor, that the Anglo-Japanese treaty, even if denounced July 15, will automatically run for another year, the question of a three months' extension of the treaty has been dropped.

Arena Seats 91,163

JERSEY CITY, July 2.—Promoter Rickard announced last night that the seat sales had exceeded the one million two hundred and fifty thousand dollar mark, and he estimated the final sale would pass one million five hundred thousand dollars, with at least eighty thousand of the 91,163 seats in the huge arena taken. A full arena would mean a sale of about one million seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Elaborate police arrangements had been made to handle a capacity crowd.

THE TIMES' WEATHER MAN

Washington, D. C., July 2.—

Weather predictions for the week beginning Monday are:
Ohio Valley and Tennessee, Region of the Great Lakes—Occasional showers first half; mostly fair later half; warm at the beginning of the week, followed by somewhat cooler weather.
The extremes in local temperature at 1:30 were: High, 91; low, 68.

Sproul Does Not Attend

PHILADELPHIA, PA., July 2.—Governor Sproul, of Pennsylvania, who was invited by Governor Edwards, of New Jersey, to be his guest at the big fight, said today he would not attend because he does not believe the people of Pennsylvania, would like it.

Dempsey Cheered As He Leaves For Arena

JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 2.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavy-weight champion, left for the arena from the home of William C. Hoppe, bank president and millionaire sportsman, where he spent the night, at 2:35 o'clock this afternoon.

Dempsey was given a rousing cheer by a crowd of several thousand persons as he emerged from the house. Accompanied by Chief of Police Bentley, the champion entered an automobile and preceded by a squad of motorcycle policemen, he was driven to the arena through a lane of cheering admirers.

Dempsey smiled and waved his hand in friendly greetings to the crowd. The champion entered one of the Tremont street entrances to the arena virtually unobserved, at 2:40 p. m. A large crowd that had gathered on Montgomery street, expecting him to enter the saucer on that side were disappointed.

Starts To Sprinkle—Then Quits

AT 3:15 it began to sprinkle. Only the rail birds with nothing but the wide-world world behind them were the only men who dared to raise an umbrella.

In a few minutes the sprinkle ended. Women in sport clothes, some of them wearing kilowares, sighed with relief.

Just before the third preliminary bout Governor Edwards entered the arena. "Hail the chief!" cried the announcer through the amplifier and the crowd "hailed," showing the first enthusiasm of the day.

Announcement was made at 1:30 that "the house was sold out," meaning that the 91,600 seats were occupied.

That patch of blue sky, always consigned to the tailor for a pair of sailor's pants, appeared at 1:30.

At 2:15 there arrived at the ringside for Dempsey a great floral horse-shoe inscribed "Success." It was composed of red carnations and gladioli.

Carpentier Enters Arena

Carpentier entered the arena at 2 o'clock. He went immediately to his dressing room. The challenger lost his way on reaching Doyle's Thirty Acres. He stood outside puzzled as to which entrance to take. Two guides went out and piloted him in. Franko Descamps, the Frenchman's manager, entered the arena clattering to himself with Parisian abandon and gesticulating as he marched to the dressing room and a few feet ahead of the challenger.

Folks wanted some real hot weather for the Fourth.

Now this weather bureau's goal? To be as accommodating as possible. Here's for tomorrow:
OHIO—Fair tonight. Somewhat warmer in the east portion. Sunday partly cloudy. Probably local thunder showers in the west portion.
KENTUCKY—Partly cloudy tonight. Sunday misty. Probably local thunder showers.

A FIRST NATIONAL ATTRACTION

Union Services Sunday

First Presbyterian and Bigelow M. E. congregations will hold union services tomorrow at Bigelow church, the Rev. D. C. Boyd of First Presbyterian preaching in the morning, and Rev. D. C. E. Chandler of Bigelow, speaking in the evening. The night services will be held on Bigelow's cool and spacious lawn, and will no doubt attract a number of people who dislike the hot weather.

The music throughout the day will be patriotic in character, under the direction of Mrs. S. R. Timmonds, pianist, organist, and will be exceptionally good. In the evening, the Bigelow church will unite with the other two, and a crowd of young folks from the Vacation School are expected to be present, and sing their Salute to the Flag.

After this Sunday Dr. Chandler will be the preacher throughout July, while First Church's pastor is on his vacation, and beginning August 15th the services will begin at First Church with Rev. D. C. Boyd as the speaker of the month. The evening services both months will be held on Bigelow's lawn.

The two congregations are exceedingly proud of the way in which they work together, they having followed this same plan with success last summer, and this spring labored together for a number of weeks in a pre-Easter evangelistic campaign in the greatest harmony.

What Has Become of Them?
Someone asks what has become of the people who could formerly be entertained for hours by asking and answering conundrums. Well, they are too good to go out much now and their children find eating Welsh rabbits less fascinating than their overstrained intellects.—Jamesville (Wis.) Gazette.

Wrecking Crew Transferred Here

Portsmouth will receive the B. & O. wrecking train now located at Wellston as a result of a recent cut and re-organization of the Wellston yards by officials who visited points on the line. Under the change freight trains from Portsmouth and Parkersburg will handle Toledo Division freight through to Chillicothe, where it is to be delivered to the Toledo Division instead of being set off at Wellston as formerly.

The change also resulted in thirty men being cut off at the Wellston yards including yard-master Walker Marsh. One yard crew, coach cleaners, boiler makers, boiler maker helpers, machinists, machinist helpers and others were affected by the cut. General Foreman Bean will be transferred to Dayton. Pat Harkins, who handled the wrecking equipment which comes to Portsmouth, will remain in Wellston as a car repairer.

The changes were made by a group of officials including R. W. Brown, Superintendent; R. Mallon, Trainmaster; William Graf, Road Foreman of Engines; F. R. Gelhausen, Master Mechanic; W. R. Reynolds, Store Keeper; all of the Ohio Division with headquarters at Chillicothe; R. R. Mann, Superintendent; W. B. Kilgore, Train Master; A. E. McMillan, Master Mechanic; all of the Toledo Division with headquarters in Dayton; and G. W. Galloway, Superintendent of Motive Power, Cincinnati.

The Toledo Division freights will run from between Dayton and Chillicothe instead of between Dayton and Wellston. The Hocking Valley is making arrangements to take care of their own yard engine, formerly handled by the B. & O.

Dave Waters, machinist, and Ivan Wilbur, helper, of Hamden were affected by the cut.

AT ALL SAINTS CHURCH TOMORROW

In accordance with the recommendation of the Department of Religious Education of the Presiding Bishop and Council, the Church School will take a vacation during the months of July and August. It has been the experience of experts in religious education that the church school teachers and scholars need a rest period just as much as those in the public schools. To conduct a school during the hot season is in the main unprofitable to all concerned. During July parents are urged to insist, where necessary, upon their children attending the morning service at church. The substitution of attendance at Sunday school for church worship is one of the crying evils of religion in America today.

There will be just two services at All Saints' Church tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., first time.

At the morning service Mrs. J. C. Lough, the city's leading lyric soprano, will sing "Ave Maria" to a setting by Rach-Gounod. Mrs. J. N. Le Van, concert violinist, will supply the obligato. The music at this service will be that of the Choral Endiast.

At the evening service the Rector will deliver a brief address on "Unprofitable Lightness."

You are cordially invited to both these services.

The church is two squares west of Chillicothe street at the corner of Fourth and Court streets.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Of course, it would be advisable to wait for a time to determine whether you really love him enough to live the remainder of your life with him, and since it is a long journey, it would be well that he could afford to provide for you as comfortably as possible in the beginning. Don't marry without love, for many such serious mistakes have been the cause of much unhappiness. It is up to you to be a helpmate to him in all things.

Dear Miss Wise—I am a girl of seventeen. I am a stenographer. I will be eighteen in October. Now I have been going with a nice fellow for the last three months. I have known him practically all my life. He is twenty-six. He has plenty of money, a home of his own, and a large car. He wants me to marry him some time next summer, but I tell him that I do not think that I love him although I do like him awfully well. He is a nice young man, with no bad habits. My parents like him, but do not think that I should marry him when I am so young. He says he realizes that I am young, but that he would like to have a real home, and someone to care for him. I realize that I would have to give up my profession, but I would have it to go back to if anything ever came up that I should have to make my own way in the world. I like him better than anyone I ever saw, but am not sure that I love him, although I miss him so when I am far away from him. Now please advise me as to what you would do if you were me. Sincerely, PEACHES.

Dear Miss Wise—I am a young married woman and have been married seven years. My husband has been pretty mean to me. He has a very quick temper. We have been parted for three months. He is in New York. I haven't heard a word from him since he left three months ago. He said he left because he would never come back to me. He said I should get a divorce from him. I have been a true loving wife, but he has done so many mean things to me that I have not had happiness. I think I will be better off away from him. I have two children and they are now living with my mother. My mother told me I should get a divorce and I have decided to wait until I have saved some money and can get one. Should I get a divorce? I am boarding with my aunt and I have to go to work.

BROKEN-HEARTED WIFE.
Go to the probate court and state your case. It should not be necessary for the expense of your divorce to fall on you. Your husband ought to be found and made to pay the court costs. Yes, I think a divorce would be better since you are not happy together and he is not true to you.

HOW WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

May Escape the Dreaded Sufferings of That Period by Taking Mrs. Block's Advice

Hopkins, Minn.—"During Change of Life I had hot flashes and suffered for two years. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the paper and got good results from taking it. I recommend my friends and you may publish this fact as a testimonial."—Mrs. R. B. BLOCK, Box 542, Hopkins, Minn.

It has been said that not one woman in a thousand passes this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very annoying and sometimes painful symptoms. Those dreadful hot flashes, sinking spells, nervousness, are only a few of the symptoms. Every woman at this age should profit by Mrs. Block's experience and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Confidential) Lynn, Mass., about your health.

Mrs. S. R. Crawford and daughter, Mary Frances, of Franklin avenue, are having an interesting visit in Washington, D. C. with Mrs. Crawford's brother-in-law, Mr. Charles Harlan, assistant executive clerk at the White House. Mrs. Crawford and daughter are daily visitors at the White House and were guests of President and Mrs. Harding at luncheon Thursday night. They are also meeting with many interesting persons at the President's reception, having had the pleasure of meeting with movie stars such as Miss Pearl White, Seena Hayakawa and Tom Mix.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Peters and daughter, Dorothy, of Wheelersburg, and niece, Jean Cole, of Bond street, left this morning for a motor trip to Manchester, where they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Peters. Mr. and Mrs. Peters will return Tuesday, leaving Jean Cole for a longer visit. Miss Dorothy Peters will go on to Buckeye Lake for a stay with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hope and son, Ralph, of High street, and their aunt, Mrs. A. M. Hope, of Pittsburgh, left today for a motor trip to Buckeye Lake, where they will spend a week at the Manger Hotel. They will later go on to Pittsburgh, accompanying home Mrs. A. M. Hope, at whose home they will visit.

Mr. Frank E. Haubert of Columbus is here for a visit with his sisters and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haubert, of Findlay street, Mrs. Lucy Guthrie, Mrs. Herbert Montgomery and son Eugene, and Miss Emma Haubert of Fourth street.

Mrs. Mathilda Diamond and six children of Logan, W. Va., arrived here today to visit with Mr. Diamond's parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Diamond, of this city.

On Thursday, Howard Blake, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Blake of Eighteenth street, celebrated his ninth birthday anniversary, with a party at his home in the evening. The affair was arranged as a surprise to the young host, and the time passed merrily with many games. Ice-cream and cake were served to Donald, Wilma and Verna Wakefield, Elizabeth Miller, Lena Mae Shonkwiler, Mildred Thomas, Lucille and Emma Canara, Olive LeVins, Leona Blake, Mildred and Madeline Crabtree, Lucille Barney, Grace Vaughters, Catherine Swin, Pauline Orfer, Elmer Brockman, Homer Vaughters, Edwin and Charles Barney, Lorin Tufis, Howard Blake and Bennie Orfer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Oldfield of Ninth street left today to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Courtney (Edna Ferguson) at Albany, N. Y. En route home, they will visit at Niagara Falls.

Mrs. J. N. LeVan of Lebanon, Pa., who is visiting with her sister, Mrs. O. J. Dietzler, of Sixth street, will give several violin numbers at All Saints' Church services Sunday morning.

Miss Lase M. Potts of the Anderson Bros. Co., is visiting with relatives and friends at Seaman over the weekend.

Seventy couples enjoyed the Elks' informal dance at Millbrook last evening, when the Neely Sisters furnished the music. The next informal dance will be next Friday night. Announcement was made for a big dance of the season on Friday, July 22, when the Elks have invited the members of the Hurkree Social Club, besides those who hold guest tickets, to enjoy an evening with the famous Yerkes Jazzyrhyth Orchestra of New York. This orchestra is known all over the world, having just finished a season in Europe, where the members played at London, Paris, and other large cities as an advertisement for the Columbia records. Tickets may be obtained at the Lincoln, Distel and Lewis Furniture stores.

Mrs. Roy Lynn was hostess at a delightfully informal luncheon Friday at their country home, "Lynwood," near Duena Vista, as a compliment to Mrs. J. N. LeVan, of Lebanon, Pa., the charming houseguest of Mrs. O. J. Dietzler, of Sixth street. Covers were laid for Mrs. J. M. Stockham, Mrs. Charles Stockham, Mrs. H. C. Jugh, Mrs. O. J. Dietzler and daughter Betty, Mrs. J. N. LeVan, Mrs. I. H. Goodman and Miss Eunice Strenshorn. Most of the guests being talented musicians, the afternoon was passed with many enjoyable musical numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kennedy and niece, Miss Irene MacGregor, of Columbus, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Griffith of the Bayview Apartments, having motored down for the weekend, accompanied by Mrs. J. Big London Bridges.

London Bridge, England, cost $10,000,000, is 900 feet long and 54 feet wide, with 100,000 persons passing over it every 24 hours. The lamp posts are made from cannon taken during the Peninsular war. Waterloo bridge, London, which was built in 1811-17, is 1,350 feet long and 43 feet wide. But nothing has ever surpassed, in every detail, the New York and Brooklyn suspension bridge, commenced under direction of J. Roebling in 1870, and opened for foot traffic on May 23, 1883. It is 5,080 feet long, the length of the river span being 1,590 feet, each land span 970 feet above high water, and cost $15,000,000.

The all-white costume has an undeniable charm in warm weather days, especially if it is planned and carried out with close attention to details. This gown is made of white Canton crepe in the popular chemise style. It is untrimmed save for heavy embroidery in huge flower design.

Orang Outang.

The huge apes (anthropoid) known as orang outangs are incorrectly named, probably owing to the difficulty of Challo, their discoverer, experienced in pronouncing Malay. Orang means a man, and outang a debt, so that orang outang means a man in debt. But the Malay word outang means forest, so that orang outang means man of the forest. In distinction to orang dusun, man of the village, civilized man.

Dictionary's Last Word.

For a long time dictionary makers were content to stop at Zymology and Zymurgy, words that have to do with the science of fermentation. Then somebody came along with Zyxomina. Now the compilers of the Oxford dictionary, begun in 1844 by Murray and the English Philological society have found still another last word: Zyxz. This is a Finnish dialect word, coming down from the fourteenth century, and it means "scoot." It hardly seems likely that Zyxz will ever be ousted from its place as the last word in the English language.

The Beard in Dreams.

To dream you have a long beard denotes long life. If black, you will have great troubles. If red, shame and disgrace will follow you. If white, cunning and success in your undertakings. To pull or shave the beard betokens loss and disappointment. If a young lady dreams she has a beard, she will marry well. To dream you are beardless is a sign of riches. To wash the beard is an omen of sadness.

A WIFE IN THE MAKING

BY PHYLLIS PHILLIPS

A RECONCILIATION
Cherry stayed in her room most of the morning. She had a severe headache and was suffering from a bad reaction.

It was not until near lunch time that she dragged herself up from her bed and over the dressing table. With languid hands she brushed out her hair staring at herself as she did so. There were dark shadows under her eyes which told their own story. The events of the last day or so, had been more than any wife could stand.

Having finished her toilette, Cherry got into a cool muslin dress, and then went down to the quiet side porch. From here she could hear Aunt Phoebe singing happily to herself as she prepared the mid-day meal. Life was a perpetual joy to her, Cherry reflected.

Some few minutes later she heard Ned come up the front path, enter the house and call her name. Then, at getting no response, he bounded up to her room and not finding his wife there came down again.

"Here, Ned, here," called Cherry, inwardly dreading the inevitable conflict. To her surprise, Ned kissed her as affectionately as ever, just as if there had been no scene at the table that morning.

"Well, lady-bird, how are you now?" he questioned. "My little girl has dark lines under her eyes. What has she been doing, I wonder?" was his next remark.

"I had a bad headache all morning, Ned, dear. It's not quite gone even now. But then I ate so little breakfast and I was so upset."

"Now, now, darling, don't begin all over again nonsense. I've thought it all over, and if you really feel the way you go ahead and take your position at Hamlet's. I wasn't really thinking about my own side in the case when we quarreled with you about it—it was mother's. You did not marry my family, little girl. And they have no right to dictate to you as to what you shall or shall not do. I'll speak to mother alone later on. So don't you worry any more about anything. Just smile at your naughty boy, and come in and eat a good luncheon. Then you'll feel a heap better."

Cherry threw her arms lovingly round his neck at these words. She felt awfully relieved. Her Ned was not so narrow-minded and selfish as she thought, after all. Thank goodness for that.

"Honey-boy, I love being your wife, and don't you ever think differently either, no matter what anybody tells you. But I never realized that there'd be so little to occupy myself with here in Wellsburg. Maybe in a year or so I'll get used to it like the rest of the wives, but right now I am so happy that you see things as I do, dear."

And here she hugged him again. "Well, there has to be a change in the old order sometime, just as Miss Bates said this morning when we were talking things over. Someone in the new generation has to start something. Be different somehow. And if it's you, Cherry, why it's you. There's no use my putting obstacles in your way, either."

"When you and Miss Bates talked things over?" repeated Cherry slowly. "Why, yes, she had read the news in 'The Leader,' and of course wanted to know if it was true and all about it. At first I couldn't say anything. I was still so upset about it all. But after a while she told me she thought it was a splendid idea for you. That lots of women weren't cut out to be just wives and maybe you were one of them. That riled me for a minute but I didn't let her see it."

"Cat," thought Cherry to herself. "Pretend, cat. I knew there was something queer about that girl."

"Then, I told you I was happy to be your wife, dear, no matter what anybody said. And you must believe me, Ned. But my longing to work is a part of myself, too. Maybe it will pass. But love me and let me try it out now, dear boy, in spite of all—please."

RECORD CROWD IN HUGE SAUCER SEES FIGHT

Spaniards, Japs, Chinese, British CROWD GATHERED FROM ALL CORNERS OF WORLD French Join Americans At Ring

NEW YORK, July 2.—New York and the entire Metropolitan area, which reaches out and embraces the now-famous Boyle's Thirty Acres in Jersey City, seemed today with a frenzy of excitement wholly unprecedented in the annals of sports as the hour rolled slowly on for the "battle of the century"—the fist clash of the world's heavyweight championship between Jack Dempsey, American title-holder, and Georges Carpentier, idol and champion of Europe.

New York's mansions and her gorgeous hotels early began disgorging brilliant parties of men and women, intent on threading in ample time the cluttered automobile highways that lead to Promoter Tex Rickard's mammoth arena in Jersey City. Less opulent fight fans had begun the scramble toward Jersey City hours earlier by ferry, by driver and by train. But even the earliest arrivals this morning found themselves out-generaled by an advance guard of about three hundred men and boys who had spent the night in line at the big arena, waiting for the first crack at the $5.50 unserved seats.

These enthusiastic advance-guardians plainly showed the effects of their vigil in wrinkled, muddy clothing and haggard expressions. Some had cat-napped on boards, newspapers and gunnysacks, but the majority had remained awake all night, feasting on hard-boiled eggs, "hot dogs," coffee and sandwiches from the stands of vendors that encircled the arena.

The bout unquestionably has excited the greatest interest ever aroused by a pugilistic encounter. The crowd that was struggling its way out toward Boyle's Thirty Acres all through the forenoon, assembled from every corner of the world. Representative citizens from far west, middle west, south and east had been rolling into the city for 48 hours on every train, while steamers deposited hundreds of enthusiasts from France, England, Spain—even from faraway Japan and China.

Among the spectators were prominent state and city officials, an assistant secretary of the navy, scientists, artists, theatrical stars and impresarios, men whose names are famous in every field of sport and just plain citizens. It was estimated that at least five thousand women would be in the big arena when the going for the main bout rang at three o'clock.

So Near And Yet So Far

JERSEY CITY, July 2.—The folks who were closer to the ring in today's big fight than any one else could not see a thing. They were the vice chief, with headquarters under the ring beneath the boxers' very feet. They could hear the thud of a knock-out (but could not tell who won).

Evidently Tex Rickard was taking no chances today on the ring going giving a gentle tinkle such as was lost in the roar at Toledo. It was tested early and loosed a healthy clatter.

Grand Jury Refused To Stop Fight

JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 2.—The Hudson County Grand Jury last night declined to return an indictment sought by the International Reform Bureau, to stop the Dempsey-Carpentier bout here today. This was regarded as the last obstacle to the match.

Eight witnesses were heard, their testimony taking up an hour and a half. The jury deliberated only ten minutes before rendering its decision against returning the indictment.

Defeated in what they announced would be their last step to stop the bout, the reformers on leaving the court house said they would seek an indictment and impeachment of Governor Edwards if they found the bout had turned to be a fight and that they also would work for the repeal of the state boxing law.

TOLEDO.—Colin Wesley, 18, was sentenced to the Mansfield reformatory for robbery and shooting with intent to kill Max Devlin.

CROWDS POURED IN EQUIPPED FOR ANYTHING FROM TRIP TO MOON TO JOURNEY FEATURED BY SIGNOR DANTE

RINGSIDE, JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 2.—(By the Associated Press)—Gates to the big fight opened at 9:45 and in popped the crowd. Through the entrances on each side of the big wooden octagon poured the men and women who today were to witness Jack Dempsey of America, and Georges Carpentier of France, do battle for the heavyweight honors of the world and the plumpest purse in history.

Soon the saucer of yellow pine, which when the sun was out, glistened like a giant bowl of brass, was decked with humanity. But, unlike an ordinary saucer, it filled from the brim down instead of the bottom up, for the first to arrive was the gallery guard with the periscope eye, who had camped all night outside the arena for the privilege of paying Promoter Tex Rickard five dollars and fifty cents.

Wave of Humanity Rolls In.—Gradually, however, the wave of humanity rolled down to the ringside, as the more pliant ticket holders reached the stadium. Unlike the ordinary show, today's performance had no exclusive bald-headed row. Hairless pates in many cases were replaced by coiffures, par excellence, for women who recently had espoused the boxer's art had turned out in full force for today's carnival of blows.

The early comers sat down to wait. They found just three things to do: Debate the weather prospects, which in the morning appeared dubious. Admire the world's greatest arena in which 90,000 odd could nestle just as easily as the proverbial sardines. And speculate on future ring history.

Clouds Keep Down Heat.—The chief topic at first was the weather. A sultry day had followed a humid night. The sun tried to pierce the screening clouds that gave a constant threat of rain, then gave up the attempt after a brief unsuccessful effort. It was an ideal day for the spectators, for no one longed for the scorching sun and no one wanted it to rain.

The crowd had many things to talk about. Every one had something in common—four of sunburn and interest in the slight unpleasantness which later was to occur on the canvas covered square in front of them. This led to conversation even among men and women as far separated as Fifth avenue and the lower East Side, New York; as foreign to one another as prince and pauper; with interests as varied as those of lawyer and ditch digger.

For they were here society women and shop girls, the merchant prince and the twenty dollar a week clerk, who worked for him, the man who lived by his brain and his fellow without a profession, and sportsmen from five continents. And fighting their way out to Boyle's Thirty Acres were coming thousands more.

Came Equipped For Anything.—The crowds came equipped for anything from a trip to the moon to a journey featured by Signor Dante.

Those who landed in Host Rickard's seventh circle of seats, running the amphitheater, came as for the race.

Carpentier Jigs For Companions

MANHASSET, N. Y., July 2.—I've had a good sleep and feel fine.

This was Georges Carpentier's smiling comment as he came out of the house at 7:45, which this morning.

The arose at 6:30, indulged in 15 minutes of stretching exercises, "open his eyes," as his trainer expressed it, and then ate a light breakfast at 7 o'clock. He jumped around the house until 7:45, when attired in an old damped shirt, old rag trousers, cap, checkered socks and worn shoes, he opened for a little light exercise along the road.

Surprised to find newspaper men waiting for him at the gate with a broad smile on his face, he remarked: "You're up early, haven't you been to bed all night?"

Accompanied by his trainer, Gus Wilson, his friend, Pierre Malotte, and his Belgian police dog, Felipe, Carpentier started for a short hike along the roads near his camp. He seemed to possess the natural abandon of a school boy on a picnic. He had a pocket full of steps when he pulled up his trousers and examined a list for the education of his companions, and the two newspaper men who joined him as one of the great heavyweights.

Jeffries used Jackson as a stepping stone to the world title. Soon after Jim Rickard, Jeffries' championed American title from Fitz, making Jeffries unqualifiably the world's heavyweight king. By virtue of descent and the failure of other European boxers to dispute the honor, the world's title descended to Dempsey. Carpentier came to the United States with a clear title to the European heavyweight crown. His decisive victories over Bombardier Wells and his sensational knockout of Joe Rockett gave him the crown without a string attached.

French And American Colors Fly

In the arena, over which flew the tri-color of France, and the starry flag of America, an army of workmen were putting on the last touches.

The ring was the scene of the greatest activity. The canvass covering was pulled taut and the ropes bound with white flannel tape. About the ring, experts were setting up telegraph instruments which were to take tidings from the ringside around the globe over more than a million miles of wires.

Further back in the arena hundreds of ushers in red caps and food vendors in white coats bustled busily.

Towering 20 feet above the ring and more than fifty feet away was a platform for moving picture operators. Unlike the movie stand at Reno, which blocked the view of the Johnson-Jeffries clash to several score spectators, this one held up by a slim steel girder that appeared not to hinder the view of the ring from any seat.

Then there were airplanes. The first two appeared shortly before ten o'clock.

Women Discuss Their Favorites

Meanwhile, the crowds discussed Dempsey the terrible, and Carpentier the mysterious. While the men confined themselves chiefly to such technical details as reach, muscle, development, and speed.

Who Harry Ertle, Bout Referee, Is

WHO is this Harry Ertle, who refereed the Dempsey-Carpentier battle, the most important ring event in two decades, asks many fans.

Ertle is a city marshal in Jersey City and has had more or less experience for ten years as third man in the ring.

He refereed the bout between Carpentier and Battling Levinsky in Jersey City last October, and he also was the third man in the ring in the flyweight championship bout between Jimmy Wilde, of England, and Mickey Russell, and for the featherweight title bout some time ago between Johnny Kilbane and Frankie Burns.

Other bouts in which he served as referee include Benny Leonard vs. Johnny Dundee, Jack Britton vs. Ted Kohn, Lewis and Mike O'Dowd vs. Annie Ratner, when they faced each other for the middleweight championship.

Dempsey To Put On Big Party At The Belmont Tonight

JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 2.—Jack Dempsey is going to put on a "big party" at the Belmont tonight to celebrate the ending of his long training grind and his expected victory over Georges Carpentier—provided his massive jaws come out of today's battle in good working order.

"It all depends on how the old jaw free," Dempsey said when asked about his after-the-fight plans. He grinned broadly and carelessly the jaw the challenger is expected to aim at, as he responded. Then, to show how he felt about his ability to evade a knock-out, he hastened to add that reservations for the big party already had been made. His guests will include his two brothers, Bernard and Johnny; Mayor Baier, of Atlantic City, where the champion trained; Manager Kearns, Trainer Hayes and other members of the Dempsey training squad.

The champion arrived here from Atlantic City late yesterday evening and with his party was conducted by Mayor Hague to the home of a Jersey City millionaire to spend the tedious hours before the battle.

Dempsey appeared as gay and carefree as a school boy and retired shortly after 9:30 o'clock.

Dempsey enjoyed every minute of his three and a half hour train ride from Atlantic City yesterday afternoon. He spent about an hour sleeping and the remainder of the time frolicking with his companions and acknowledging the cheers of crowds that gathered at stations where word was passed that the champion was on board.

Peter Jackson Was Last Great European Heavy To Seek Title

GORGES CARPENTIER is the first European heavyweight to be a recognized contender for the world's heavyweight championship in twenty-three years. Peter Jackson's battle with James J. Jeffries in 1895 was the last great international heavyweight contest.

Wears New White Trunks

MANHASSET, N. Y., July 2.—Arising this morning at the usual hour, 6:00 o'clock, Georges Carpentier breakfasted, spent fifteen minutes at setting-up exercises, then permitted himself to be amused by his comrades while the hours passed by.

Georges had a brand new pair of white trunks with blue stripes down each side. He said this morning that he did not intend to wear a hunk of the tri-color of France, as had been reported. The confidence of Carpentier's comrades in his ability to defeat Dempsey was displayed today in the announcement that several of them had bet close to $5,000 that Georges would win by a knock-out. They said they had been given three and five to one.

Fire Works at Play House.—Advertisement.

Between three thousand and four thousand spectators were assembled when the bleacher seats, selling for $5.50, were thrown open at 9:45 o'clock. There was a sprinkling of women in the crowd and the third person to enter the turnstile was a member of the fair sex. Most of the early arrivals carried umbrellas, rain coats and lunchees.

Instead of next May as originally planned, emergency police and hospital stations were established near the saucer.

Thomas Tuohy, a cook on the Jersey City lunch wagon, gained the honor of being the first in line for the $5.50 seats. He arrived at the arena at 8 o'clock last night and could not be budged from his place.

After the initial rush of early arrivals the spectators began to dribble into the huge structure more slowly. An elderly man, who had stood in line most of the night, dropped from exhaustion just before reaching the gate. He was taken to the temporary hospital, where he was revived and sent home.

Early indications were that some of the spectators would be heavy losers before the day was over. The crowd, apparently disturbed by the report of hundreds of counterfeit tickets in circulation, passed them by and made their purchases at the official selling booths.

Speculators, their hat bands filled with tickets, were offering $50 paribonds for $25; $40 tickets for $25; and the cheaper seats at similar reductions. They were the objects of ridicule and hater from the holders of box office tickets.

The elite of the fight crowd began moving toward the arena at the noon hour. A party of twenty, including several United States senators, was the guest of W. C. Taglio, president of the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey. Members of the party arrived from Washington early this morning and made the trip across the river on one of the Standard Oil Company's tugs.

Puckey McFarland, former light-weight, also chartered a tug to carry across a party of friends.

The real scramble for the arena started soon after the noon hour. Crowds pouring from the office buildings of lower Manhattan, the uptown hotels and the late trains began a concerted attack on the ferris and tubes, where long lines of passengers were kept waiting for trains and boats.

Two Cleveland youths were the first to be arrested. They were found in the $15 section without tickets and were detained as disorderly persons. They gave their names as Samuel Scott, who said he was a Greenview high school senior, and George Marks a clerk.

Heads Sunday School Association.—COLUMBUS—President Walter G. Clippinger, of Otterbein College, Westerville, was re-elected president of the Ohio State Sunday School Association.

Rickards, Gambler, And Traveler, To Make Clean Sweep

THAT Tex Rickard should promote the biggest heavyweight battle between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier was taken as a matter of course from the time talk of the international event started.

For Rickard's life has been one long gamble—which is what the big melée is from a promotion angle.

Staged successfully before a capacity crowd, it means hundreds of thousands of dollars in Tex's already fat bank roll. Should undreamed of conditions have cut down the crowd or prevented the fight, Rickard's work would have gone for naught.

Rickard's real name is George Lewis Rickard. He got his nick-name from a fellow gambler on a steamer out of Alaska years ago. The chap, knowing Rickard hailed from Texas, kept calling him "Tex." Rickard's father died when Tex was eleven. The family was living in Missouri then. The mother took her family to Texas. Tex's schooling was nil. When adventure finally called him he yielded and has seen all parts of the world. He was in the vanguard of care free agents who helped open up the Yukon country.

Rickard not only promoted but refereed the Jeffries-Johnson fight at Reno, Nev., July 4, 1910. It was he who offered what was then believed to be an insane purse for a fight, $101,000. Even his friends said he was taking too big a chance. Dempsey and Carpentier collect a total of $500,000.

Rickard promoted the last big heavyweight championship battle—the Willard-Dempsey affair at Toledo. The affair was a failure financially. The great wooden arena was only partly filled. When the spectators made a rush for the higher priced seats as the main bout started the entire outer sections of the bowl was empty.

Wars, Cabinet Crises, Crashing Big Fight Only Topic Of The Day Banks Forgotten By French

PARIS, July 2.—Crashing banks, wars, cabinet crises, reparations, Silesia and all other public questions were all thrust into the background by this morning's newspapers, which gave the most prominent place in their columns to the news regarding the Dempsey-Carpentier battle in Jersey City. Even Communist organs devoted themselves to dispatches from America dealing with the coming international glove combat.

The manner in which newspapers subordinated everything to news of the fight was wholly unprecedented, even the comic cartoonists and the columnists concentrated their efforts on that theme. Each newspaper in Paris had made its own arrangement for proclaiming the result, and the scenes to be enacted in Paris tonight bid fair to rival those which accompanied the announcement of the signing of the armistice.

Stayed Up All Night To Get In; Squatters Routed

JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 2.—Leaden skies greeted the vanguard of the vast crowd pouring into this city from all directions today to witness the Carpentier-Dempsey bout.

Several hundred men and boys who had remained outside the arena all night built bonfires and went through impromptu calisthenics to seek warmth against the cool breezes that swept over the Jersey meadows.

At 9:00 o'clock the thermometer registered seventy and there was little indication that the fight spectators would sweater under a broiling sun, as many had predicted earlier in the week. The streets around the big saucer resembled an early morning scene at a circus. Vendors of flags, souvenirs, seat cushions, peanuts, "hot dogs," and all the other articles that find a ready sale among holiday sportspersons did a thriving business.

Just before the gates were opened, several hundred ushers and police made a thorough search of the arena to rout out all squatters.

Scores of boys had secreted themselves during the night in an effort to witness the fight without expense, were pulled out of all sorts of hiding places and sent scampering for home.

Streams of water were then turned on the inside of the arena to wet it down and prevent the possibility of fire.

The human tidal wave began to move towards Jersey City shortly after 7 o'clock.

Between three thousand and four thousand spectators were assembled when the bleacher seats, selling for $5.50, were thrown open at 9:45 o'clock. There was a sprinkling of women in the crowd and the third person to enter the turnstile was a member of the fair sex. Most of the early arrivals carried umbrellas, rain coats and lunchees.

Instead of next May as originally planned, emergency police and hospital stations were established near the saucer.

Thomas Tuohy, a cook on the Jersey City lunch wagon, gained the honor of being the first in line for the $5.50 seats. He arrived at the arena at 8 o'clock last night and could not be budged from his place.

After the initial rush of early arrivals the spectators began to dribble into the huge structure more slowly. An elderly man, who had stood in line most of the night, dropped from exhaustion just before reaching the gate. He was taken to the temporary hospital, where he was revived and sent home.

Early indications were that some of the spectators would be heavy losers before the day was over. The crowd, apparently disturbed by the report of hundreds of counterfeit tickets in circulation, passed them by and made their purchases at the official selling booths.

Speculators, their hat bands filled with tickets, were offering $50 paribonds for $25; $40 tickets for $25; and the cheaper seats at similar reductions. They were the objects of ridicule and hater from the holders of box office tickets.

The elite of the fight crowd began moving toward the arena at the noon hour. A party of twenty, including several United States senators, was the guest of W. C. Taglio, president of the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey. Members of the party arrived from Washington early this morning and made the trip across the river on one of the Standard Oil Company's tugs.

Puckey McFarland, former light-weight, also chartered a tug to carry across a party of friends.

The real scramble for the arena started soon after the noon hour. Crowds pouring from the office buildings of lower Manhattan, the uptown hotels and the late trains began a concerted attack on the ferris and tubes, where long lines of passengers were kept waiting for trains and boats.

Two Cleveland youths were the first to be arrested. They were found in the $15 section without tickets and were detained as disorderly persons. They gave their names as Samuel Scott, who said he was a Greenview high school senior, and George Marks a clerk.

Heads Sunday School Association.—COLUMBUS—President Walter G. Clippinger, of Otterbein College, Westerville, was re-elected president of the Ohio State Sunday School Association.

Eagles Leaders In Horseshoe Tournament

With the Hilltop Eagles standing out as the only undefeated team of the tournament and only five other teams left in the running, the Horseshoe Tournament is narrowing down to the place where tight pitching is needed to win, and interest and enthusiasm are at a fever heat. Three matches have been scheduled for next Wednesday night, July 13, when at least two of the teams will be eliminated and possibly three.

In addition to the matches between the Hilltop Eagles and the Christian Church Seconds, neither of which had been defeated, the pitching of Rhineland and Howland of the Hilltop Athletics Seconds was a particularly noteworthy feature. Rhineland and Howland believe they have set up a record with a total of 18 ringers in three games, Howland making six ringers in one game.

The Hilltop Eagles, Gerald and Kitchin, took three out of four games with the Christian Church Seconds, winning 21 to 20, 9 to 21, 21 to 19 and 21 to 11. Allridge was high man with 20 points and 23 ringers.

The Hilltop Athletics Seconds, who have won every one of their games since the first night when they lost their opener, took over the York Park Specials First Tierley and Hughes, smoothly, with scores of 21 to 13, 21 to 6 and 21 to 19. Howland was high man with 40 points and 11 ringers.

On court three the Terminals, Ruch and McMahon, won three straight from the Lincoln Fire Engine Co., Partlow and Riggs. The scores were 21 to 11, 21 to 14 and 21 to 13. Ruch was high man with 40 and ten ringers.

Christian Church First, Klein and W. Sparks, were forced to go four games with the Giants, Methuen and Bell, winning 21 to 18, 21 to 11, 9 to 21 and 21 to 14. Klein with 41 and three ringers was the high man.

Wednesday night the undefeated Hilltop Eagles will meet the Christian Church First, the Hilltop Athletics Seconds meet Tierley and Yoley, and Christian Church Seconds (loss) with the Terminals. Should the Christian Church firsts be able to stop the Eagles, four teams will be left, each with one loss. Otherwise there will be three teams remaining, the Hilltop Eagles having the advantage of having to lose two matches before being out of the running.

Taken Under Advisement

After hearing arguments of counsel on motion for relieving in the suit of The John H. McGowan company of Cincinnati, against the City of Portsmouth, Court of Appeals in session at Jackson early this week, took the motion under advisement.

The plaintiff company sued for approximately $40,000 for extras and for damages in connection with its contract for building the city water works plant and a jury in Common Pleas court judgment for $30,000 was awarded by Judge Stephenson to the company on the verdict of the jury which heard the case. Appellate court later reduced the judgment to $18,000 with interest and attorneys for the city then filed a motion for a rehearing.

Attorney E. G. Millar and Solicitor S. A. Skelton appeared in support of the motion, which was opposed by Attorneys Phares, Cincinnati, and C. M. Seart of this city, for the company.

COURT HOUSE

Executrix Named
Barbara Brandel was named by the probate court Saturday as executrix of the estate of her late father, John Brandel, who died recently at his home in this city, leaving property with an estimated value of $6,000.00 all of which is represented by real estate except $400 personally.

Lunacy Complaint Filed
A lunacy complaint was filed in probate court Saturday against Martin Blakeman, 24, years old, Jefferson township farmer.

A warrant for the arrest of the man was issued and Judge Gilliland fixed the time for holding the inquest for next Tuesday.

Seeks Custody of Child
Testimony in opposition to an application made by the defendant in the suit of Edith Beek Bentley, Sciotoville, against Dewey Beck, steelworker, was heard by Judge Thomas in Common Pleas court Saturday and then continued until next Friday when further evidence will be heard on behalf of Beck in support of his application to modify a former order of the court in respect to the custody of their minor child, who was confined to the custody of Mrs. Flora D. Beck, aunt of the plaintiff, at the time the latter was granted a divorce more than three years ago. Attorney B. F. Kimble for the former wife and Attorneys Blair and Blair for Beck.

Mrs. Vias Granted Divorce
On the grounds of neglect and desertion Mary Vias was granted a divorce by Judge Thomas in Common Pleas court Saturday divorcing her from William Vias. They were married about 20 years ago and their two children are now of age. The plaintiff who lives at Sciotoville, New Boston, told the court that Vias failed to support her 10 years ago. His present whereabouts are unknown. Attorney T. C. Beatty represented the wife.

To Spend Fourth at Dayton
Miss Evelyn Wallace, deputy in the office of the clerk of courts will leave Sunday for Dayton where she will spend her Fourth of July vacation visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Bratton, formerly of Radon.

Suit In Ejectment
Alleging that the defendant has wrongfully taken possession of a strip of land 22 inches wide from their lot in the vicinity of Kendall avenue, and Callin street, Noah and Margaret F. Hensley instituted an action in Common Pleas court Friday seeking to eject May Smith from the property in question. The suit was filed through Attorneys Millar, Johnson and Skelton.

Marriage Licenses
Willie M. Branch, 24, laborer, New

Boston and Louise Bertha Majors, 21, city. Both colored. Rev. William Lawhorn.

Halder Kyer, 18, meat pusher, Jackson, and Anna Katenbach, 20, South Webster. Rev. William Lawhorn.

John P. Dorio, 37, shoemaker, city and Mary Alice Welch, 34, saleslady, city. Rev. C. E. Severinghaus.

Everett Stanley, 24, painter, Covellville and Martha Brown, 23, Franklin Furnace. Rev. Mr. Willis.

Frederick Curtis, 28, foreman, Columbus and Nellie Richards, 28, clerk, city. Rev. P. C. Wolfe.

Seeks To Sell Real Estate
Application for leave to sell his real estate situated on Scioto Trail, subject to the contingent right of dower of the defendant, was made in a suit filed in Common Pleas court Saturday by Henry E. Bierly against Estelle C. Bierly, an insane person, and Harry E. Bierly, as her guardian and husband. The suit was filed through Attorneys Miller and Seart.

Will Be Closed Monday
All offices at the court house will be closed Monday on account of Independence Day and the officials and clerks will celebrate the holiday in various ways.

Admitted To Probate
A will executed on May 15, 1917, by the late David L. Williams, who died recently at his home in this city, was admitted to probate Saturday. Under the terms of the will the testator left his entire estate to his wife, Ida C. Williams and she was nominated as executrix.

Abandon Fight For Child
Mr. and Mrs. George Sheppard who live near the solway plant have abandoned their efforts to regain possession of their alleged neglected and dependent child, Ethel, 16 years old, through legal proceedings in juvenile court and Saturday gave their consent to permit the girl to remain in the custody of Miss Carrie Swearingin with whom the child has been staying for some weeks.

It was claimed that the girl had neither a suitable home or clothes while with her parents and that she was not sent to school.

Revival Meetings
Revival meetings in charge of Rev. J. W. Mitchell and Rev. Roe Tolson will be held for the next few days at 1119 Mill street beginning with this evening. Everyone is cordially invited.

WILL HOLD UNION SERVICES

First Presbyterian and Bigelow M. E. congregations will worship together on Sunday morning and evening, at Bigelow church.

This will be the first of the union services which will continue through the summer, in which the two churches unite their congregations and share their ministers. For the month of July the services will be at Bigelow, and in August at First church. After next Sunday, Rev. Dr. C. E. Chandler of Bigelow, will do the preaching until August. Rev. D. C. Boyd of First Presbyterian then taking the pulpit until the first of September.

The Sunday evening services during both months will be held out of doors on the spacious lawn at Bigelow church. When the weather does not permit an outdoor service, it will be held indoors, at the same church where the morning service was conducted.

On Sunday morning Rev. D. C. Boyd will preach, and in the evening the preacher will be Rev. Dr. C. E. Chandler. As there is to be no service at First Evangelical that evening, the pastor, Rev. Samuel Lindemeyer is joining with the other pastors, and asking as many as possible of the members of the Vacation School from the three churches to be present and sing the salute to the flag that is so effective at each opening morning.

The music, under the direction of Mrs. S. B. Timmonds, will be patriotic in character, and promises to be unusually good. A pleasant fellowship is anticipated on the opening day of the union services, which will of course, obtain as before, through the summer.

BRIDGE BLOWN UP IN IRISH REVOLUTION

Cashel Bridge, County Tyrone, Ireland, as it appears now.

The huge stone Cashel bridge in County Tyrone, Ireland, was recently blown up by Sinn Féin. The body of one man was found in the ruins. The bridge now is a menace, as the break in the span cannot be seen from one approach.

INFORMATION FOR AUTOISTS

The Portsmouth Auto Club has had a number of requests for routes to Sequent Mound, Adams county. Manager T. J. Cue of the Auto Club reported today that the best route is via Picketon, Jasper and Idaho Pike.

The Auto Club has also announced that the West Side Road will be open to Rushtown Sunday and Monday. This road is in fair shape at present, but in case of a heavy rain the club would advise against anyone taking the road, which is being improved.

Any autoist desiring information on any route may call Manager T. J. Cue at his home, 1728-L. There is no further changes in local road conditions.

Lovers' Quarrels Not Trifles.
It has been said that lovers' quarrels are but the renewal of love. There was never a truer word. Every quarrel is a blot on a fair page. Forgiveness may cause it, but, at the best, the mark of the erasure is there forever and the page wears thin.—S. G. Tallentyre.

Once When Boston Was Second.
A dispatch from Boston tries to prove that dress reform started there in 1634, but Boston cannot establish much of a reputation for ancient respectability on that score. Dress reform started in the Garden of Eden.—Detroit Free Press.

Joins Toledo Council of Churches
TOLEDO—Rev. C. McLeod Smith, secretary of the church federation of Buffalo, N. Y., has accepted the position of secretary of the Toledo council of churches.

Harding Takes Holiday Vacation
HARTMAN, N. J.—President and Mrs. Harding arrived here to spend a four day vacation with Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen.

Highest Happiness.
The greatest happiness of life is the conviction that we are loved, loved for ourselves—say rather, in spite of ourselves.—Hugo.

Ancients and Sunspots.
The ancients were at a great disadvantage in not knowing about sunspots. A casual reading of newspaper stories concerning the latest of these manifestations suggests that the Greeks would have taken the elopement of Paris and Helen as a matter of course; that the Trojans would have had no difficulty in finding a plausible origin for the wooden horse; that Caesar would have looked with pity instead of reproach, upon Brutus and that Lady Macbeth would have exclaimed: "Out, d-d suspect!"—New York Sun.

RAILROAD MEN SENTENCED
TOLEDO—R. C. Hall and Don Sigourney, railroad men at Willard, Ohio, were sentenced by Judge Killits to 18 months in the Atlanta prison on charges of violating the interstate commerce law.

Youth Electrified In Home
SIDNEY—Francis Hendrick, 12, son of Lawrence Hendrick, was electrified in the basement of his home when standing barefooted on the wet floor and tried to disconnect a light socket.

Using Water's Energy.
A French scientist has installed in his home a scheme to provide himself with electricity without cost, beyond the initial cost of equipment. Upon his water-supply pipe, he has fitted a dynamo charging a storage battery. Every time a tap is turned on in the house the stream of water is put to work at loading the battery which furnishes current for the electric lights and other purposes. "It is simply utilizing energy that is ordinarily wasted," says the inventor.

Can't Win.
A New York man had his pocket picked in court. Going to court is a losing game anyway you look at it.—Detroit Free Press.

Will Give Cantata
Trinity choir is busy working on a cantata they will give in two weeks. The cantata is "The Greatest Love," by H. M. Stultz.

A Man's Weight in Gold.
How much is a billion dollars? One billion dollars' worth of coin silver would make a cube nearly 50 feet on an edge. If you were worth your weight in silver that would not make you rich. The weight of a 150-pound man would be balanced on the scales with $2,500 worth of coin silver. His weight in coined gold would be worth only $40,000.

Spiders Vs. Long Run
The Spiders will play the Long Run Cubs Sunday afternoon on their diamond. The Spiders will use the following lineup: Rogers, p.; L. Cooper, 1st; Blilman, 2nd; Burton, ss; Monk, 3rd; Graves, in; Gayheart, rf; J. Cooper, lf; Hlee, c.

The Truth Won't Pass.
When Dean Richmond was at the head of the New York Central, a boy asked him for a pass to his home town. Richmond could assume a very terrible aspect, and, looking as awful as he could, he roared at the youngster, "Why do you want a pass?" The boy was so terrified that he forgot the speech he had learned for the occasion, and blurted out, "Because I don't want to pay." Dean Richmond remarked that this was the first time anyone had ever told the truth in asking for a pass, and he gave the boy his first free ride.

"Free Party" Didn't Suit Him.
William had been to several birthday parties, always taking a present to the little hostess. When his birthday arrived his mother told him he could have a party, but nothing was to be said about its being his birthday. He pouted a while and then said: "I do not care for a party if I have to have a free party."

Trade Ponder For Robertson

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 2.—Pitcher Elmer Ponder, who has been with the Pirates for two seasons, has been traded to the Chicago Cubs for outfielder Dave Robertson, it was announced here today. The trade is to go into effect at once.

Clymer Quits Toledo Club

TOLEDO, O., July 2.—William "Dorley" Clymer has resigned as manager of the Toledo club of the American Association, according to an announcement by President Bresnahan this morning. Fred Lindner, veteran first baseman, and former captain of the team, has been named manager to succeed Clymer, according to Bresnahan.

Cleveland Team At San Diego

SAN DIEGO, CAL., July 2.—In what is declared to be the first of the intercollegiate world's series baseball championships, the West Tech baseball team of Cleveland, Ohio, and the San Diego High School nine cross bats in the opening game today. Both teams have just finished successful seasons, the visiting aggregation winning the championship in the central section and San Diego annexing the California title.

Free Ride To Greenup

The fact that all fans who attend the game at Coney Island on tomorrow, Sunday, July 3 between Greenup and Shultz's All Stars will be given a free ride to Greenup and return after the game on the Steamer J. P. Davis, will no doubt result in the largest crowd of the season. The ball game is going to be a real struggle, for Greenup is coming down loaded for bear. The team will be accompanied by a crowd of rooters—all Greenup being interested in the contest and ready to back their team to the limit. The Stars are strong in every department and anticipate no trouble in winning from the Kentuckians. The game will be called at 3 o'clock, last time. Fans can make the trip to Coney on the steamer, which will leave the foot of Chillicothe street every 30 minutes, starting at 1:30. The steamer will bring down the rooters from Greenup, reaching the grounds at 1 o'clock. Despite the free ride to Greenup and return, there will be no advance in the price of admission. Only those attending the game, however, will be entitled to the free ride to Greenup and return. Dancing free on the pretty boat and a jolly good time promised all who make the trip.

Outsider Wins

CINCINNATI, July 2.—Four horses and their riders fell in a heap at Latonia in the third race, enabling Jake Feld, an outsider, to win at 230.20 to 2. The riders were unhurt.

Highland Wins In The Ninth

Friday afternoon on York park diamond the Highland avenue and Campbell avenue school baseball nines played a six to five game the contest going to the Highland nine in the last inning when they scored two runs. The game was anybody's until the last frame when the Highland nine staged the rally that brought them victory. Crawford and Dawson worked for the winners while Moore and White were in the points for Campbell. The features of the game were the mound work of Crawford, two running catches by Russell and Gordley and the hitting of these two hits, each getting a home run while Gordley also bagged a two base clout.

HERE ARE LATEST AVERAGES

CHICAGO, July 2.—Rogers Hornsby, the St. Louis star slugger, who is topping the batters of the National League, went up against some stiff pitching the past week when the Cardinals battled with Eastern invaders, and dropped twelve points off his batting average, according to figures published today which includes games of last Wednesday. He has been hitting .367.

Hornsby has passed the century mark for hits, the first member of the Heydler circuit to do this so far this season. He has cracked out 105 for a total of 162 bases, which puts him far in front of his rivals. His hits include sixteen doubles, ten triples and seven homers.

Tip Young of New York, who was in sixth position among the batters who have participated in 40 or more games, has advanced to second place with an average of .367, while McHenry, the Cardinal outfielder, though dropping 21 points, remains third with .361.

When George Kelly of New York batted out a homer during the week, he raised his total to ten, just one behind Muesel of Philadelphia, who failed to add to his string of eleven.

Max Carey, the fleet footed Pittsburgh outfielder, and Frank Frisch of New York are having a neck and neck race for stolen base honors. Each added four to his string and again they are tied with 17 each.

Other leading batters: Roush, Cincinnati .359; Muesel, Philadelphia .354; Grimes, Chicago .351; Mann, St. Louis .351; Fournier, St. Louis .353; Maranville, Pittsburgh .351; Cushman, Pittsburgh .347.

Dabe Ruth, the home run king, has recovered from his set back last week at the hands of Dick Kerr of the White Sox. He drove out four circuit hits the past week and brought his total up to 28, including games of last Wednesday. However Ruth did not fare so well as regards averages, his batting figures showing a drop of six points to .365.

Ruth has made 80 hits for a total of 207 bases, and also leads in runs scored, having registered 73 times for the New York club. He has cracked out twenty doubles and seven triples.

Harry Heilmann, the Detroit slugger, who is leading the men who have played in 40 or more games, got back into his stride and has been hitting the ball with some regularity. Heilmann has boosted his average to .318; Tris Speaker, pilot of the Cleveland world's champions, also made up some of the ground he lost a couple weeks ago and is the runner-up to Heilmann with an average of .308. Ty Cobb, the Detroit leader, suffered a loss of eight points during the past week, but continued in third place with a .388. George Sisler, the St. Louis star, stuck to fourth place despite a drop of 12 points. He is hitting .365.

Sisler suffered another base during the week and continues to set the pace in the American league with 15 thefts, with Joe Judge and S. Harris of Washington tied for second place with 13 each.

Other leading batters: Severoid, St. Louis .358; Williams, St. Louis .357; E. Collins, Chicago .353; Tobin, St. Louis .350; R. Jones, Detroit .348; Gharrey, Washington .346.

Ed Russell, the former White Sox pitcher who is working in the outfield for Minneapolis in the American Association, is making strong bids for batting honors in President Hickey's Circuit, with an average of .370. Russell has moved into the tie with Kirke of Louisville for second place among players who have participated in 40 or more games. Butler of Kansas City continues at the head of the regulars with an average of .401, while Gainer, who was the runner-up a week ago, now stands five points behind Russell and Kirke with .374.

Russell also continues to run a neck and neck race with Bunning Brief of Kansas City for home run honors. Each cracked out his thirteenth homer the past week. Baird of Indianapolis annexed four stolen bases to his string and is showing the way to the base stealers with 24 thefts.

Other leading batters: Baird, Indianapolis .360; Duncan, St. Paul .357; Gearin, Milwaukee .356; Good, Kansas City .355; Thorpe, Toledo .354; Haas, St. Paul .352; Ellis, Louisville .350.

"I have just heard of a woman who went to a hotel unaccompanied and discovered that the acoustic properties of her room were such that every time she spoke aloud there was an echo. Coney Island Ready For July 4

Everything is all set for the big Fourth of July celebration at Coney Island on Monday, July 4th and judging from the reports received by the promoters J. F. Potts and Frank Voorheis, together with the Coney Island Amusement Co., a crowd of July 2000 will be in attendance. A bigger carnival of entertainment was never mapped out for this section of the country than is planned for Coney Island, and there will not be an idle moment during the entire day. Will Rogers, the black wizard of the air, has his big balloon on the grounds and will twice during the day do his death-defying topepedo parachute leap. While the balloon is 3000 feet in the air, Rogers will be fired out into space from a big cannon—when his parachute will open and he will come to earth. He is the only man in the world doing this wonderful act, which is without doubt the most hazardous of any known.

There will be 32 rounds of fighting. The main go will be between Phil O'Dowd, of Columbus and Don Baxter, of Lima. This bout would be a headliner in any city, and is well worth the price of admission. The semi-final will be between Web Colley of Wheeling, W. Va., and "Pigiron" Turner, of Lima. Colley is now on the grounds and worked out yesterday and today with "Nig" Blair, Portsmouth's crack lightweight, who is to meet Joe Brennen, of Columbus in an eight round go. Blair is in fine fettle according to Colley, who says he is the hardest hitter he has ever seen. There will be two ball games, the morning contest being between Shultz Stars and Sciotoville, while the afternoon game will be between the Excelsiors, Industrial League leaders and Shultz Stars. There will be all sorts of other athletic events such as 50 yard dash for boys and girls, greased pig chase, pole climbing, and platform dancing. It's going to be the greatest celebration ever held in this region, according to the promoters, and in making everything as pleasant as possible and in affording ample protection, the sheriff of Greenup county, together with

WORLD'S RECORD ON HALF MILE TRACK

SAGINAW, MICH., July 2.—Herb Ely, trotter from the Geers stable, and driven by Hal Erwin in the short ship races here, covered the first half of the first heat in the 2:13 trot stake Friday in 1:01 and took 2:08 1-4, 2:07 1-4 and 2:09 1-4, respectively, for the three heats. The performance is believed to constitute world's half mile track records for the half mile and for three heats by the same horse.

They All Do. A Louisville girl announces that she "prefers matrimony to a vocal career." However, after she is married she'll no doubt find many opportunities to use her voice.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

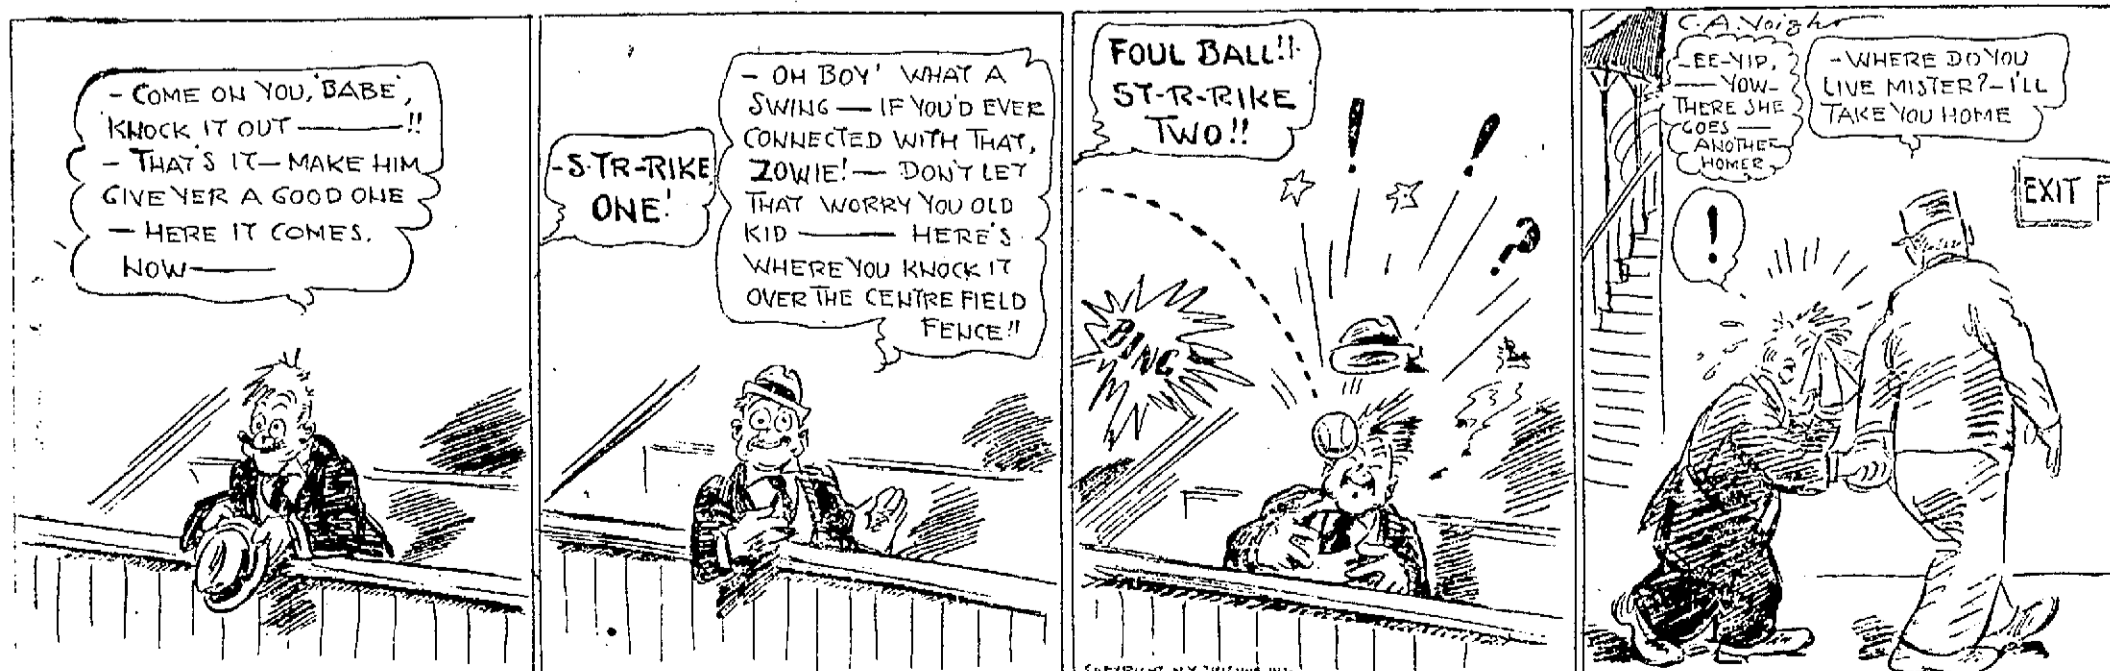

Before Books Were Plentiful. The almanac and the family Bible constituted the home library some two hundred years ago. The weather predictions in the almanacs of 160 years ago were occasionally right, and when so proved in any locality, the fame of the predictor was proclaimed abroad, at the corner groceries and tavern bars of the land.

Imitating Hard Words Not Difficult. It is worth knowing that soft words, treated with oil satin finished over with two coats of varnish or wax, can be made to resemble closely light or dark oak, cherry, mahogany, walnut, or mission oak. The work does not require any exceptional skill and the result is invariably well worth the effort.—Popular Science Monthly.
